Innovate

The 12th Annual User's Conference is a time to innovate new processes using your CribMaster system. How do you continue to innovate? You do things better, smarter, and more efficiently in managing your indirect materials. The CribMaster User Conference is all about making the connections with other users and innovating with the tools you already have. It's a time to stimulate learning and out-of-the-box thinking. It's a time to introduce something new and discover new processes in inventory management.

CribMaster 9

Do you have a migration plan? Have you thought about when you may want to begin to transition from classic CribMaster? How about ATR9, have you heard all the great new benefits that come along with it? We have an amazing year of innovative ideas implemented into our entire system and with the recent release of CribMaster 9 you won't want to miss what is available. Battery powered RFID devices, vending machines with no PC, software with features that will blow you away. You have to attend and learn what the future of CribMaster has in store for you!
